

I speak in favor of maintaining Net Neutrality.

If Net Neutrality is abridged, the minimal effective competition between them will allow them to implement practices which I feel will not be in the best interest in consumers.

Quentin R Schander